Campus Chairs Update April 2017

Bargaining update

We have had recent correspondence from the employer regarding dates for the bargaining table and PSBU will be replying shortly. Check our website on a regular basis to get up-to-date information.

PS.SGEU.ORG website

Your bargaining committee is looking for a member that would be interested in managing our website. We are looking for someone with web programming experience. Interested members should contact Bonnie Bond.

If you aren't receiving emails from SGEU, contact MIS@SGEU.ORG with your personal email information.

New position dispute

Sask Polytech has a new position that both PSBU and the Sask Polytech Faculty Association (SPFA) have determined is the work of their bargaining unit. Both parties will be presenting their case to the labour relations board in May.

Fighting for Saskatchewan Rally

See the link below for details on another rally that SGEU is organizing in Regina. We encourage all members to attend. The more people that participate, the stronger the message is to the government.

Union Management Dialogue

Your bargaining committee has recently met with senior management to discuss a number of ongoing institutional concerns affecting our members.

Job evaluation committee rep

PSBU is needing a new representative for a three-year term on the joint union-management job evaluation committee starting in 2017-18. Watch for an email from the bargaining chair with detailed information.
