

Campus Chairs Update January 2018

Bargaining Update

A separate communication will be sent out.

New Template – Job Information Questionnaire (JIQ)

Your bargaining team has been working with Human Resources to update the JIQ template. The newest version is now available on mySaskPolytech within the HR Team Site. Look for it via: Employee Resources and Forms / Professional Services Job Evaluation / Job Information Questionnaire (January 2018).

SGEU Human Rights/Equity Nominations

The SGEU Human Rights/Equity Committee is seeking a chair and alternates for the Visible Minority seat. Nominees must be a Visible Minority. Nomination forms are available http://www.sgeu.org/public/images/CALL\_out\_visible\_minority-2.pdf. Completed forms need to be submitted by January 31 to ljardine@sgeu.org.

Saskatchewan Polytechnic – one of Canada's top employers

Dr. Rosia has sent out an email indicating that Sask Polytech has been named by Mediacorp as one of Canada's top 100 employers. Your bargaining committee are proud to point out that many of the eligibility qualifications are bargained rights, including:

- maternity top-up payments for new mothers (to 100% of salary for 17 weeks), as well as parental leave top-up payments that extend to new dads and adoptive parents (to 100% of salary for 17 weeks) Article 10.18
- defined contribution pension plan Article 18.4
- employees start with 3 weeks and earn up to 7 weeks of paid vacation Article 12
- employees may also apply for self-funded and unpaid leaves of absence (for up to 1 year in duration) Article 16

In solidarity,
